Computers

It's easy to like computers, now that they're so easy to use. But you used to have to be a real "brain" to work them. Computers were invented in the early 1940s. They could only do math problems and were as big as a warehouse. In the 1950s there were only about 100 computers in the world. But now, because of microchips, computers are in everything and everywhere, not just on desktops. They're in almost all electronics like cameras, watches, cars, TV's, you name it. It'd be harder to name something without a computer in it.

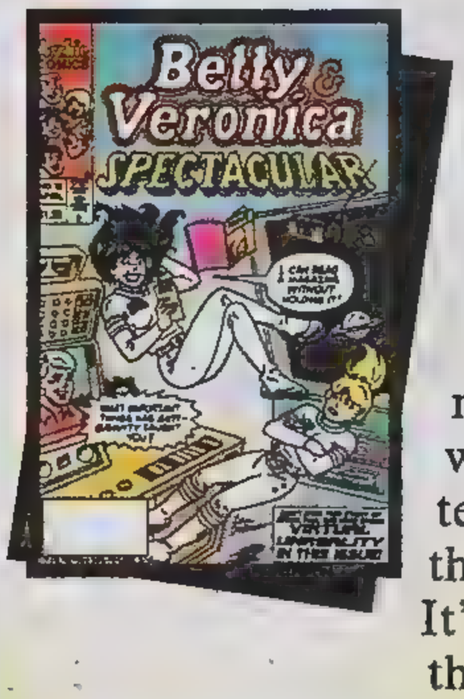
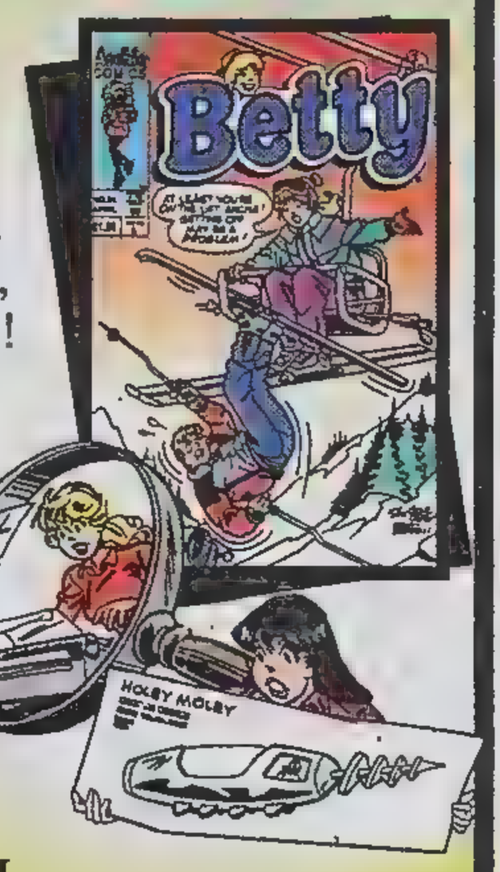
EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

It's kick-off time! Time to "kick-off" a New Year at Archie Comics!....And I'm here to help start your New Year off on the right foot. How am I going to do that? Glad you asked. Here are some of the new and exciting issues scheduled for the start of 1996.



BETTY & VERONICA SPECTACULAR #18. In the story "Virtual Unreality" Betty and Veronica take a trip to Mars, with the help of a virtual reality spaceship simulator at Mr. Lodge's aerospace plant. The big question is, is it only make believe or the real thing?



BETTY #36. It's another great Betty Cooper, Super Sleuther mystery. This time, in keeping with the Holiday Season, you won't want to miss "The Sweet Potato Caper." When international terrorists steal Mr. Lodge's "Holey Moley" burrowing machine, they hold it for ransom. The ransom to be paid..."Sweet Potatoes"! It's up to Betty Cooper, Super Sleuther to unravel this not so appealing crime.

SUPER SONIC vs HYPER KNUCKLES SPECIAL #1. If you're a SONIC fan, this issue is a must! If you're not, shame on you! You'll see Sonic transform into his ultimate super-powered form of SUPER SONIC as he takes on the ultimate form of HYPER KNUCKLES in a no-holds-barred battle of the century.

That's just the tip of the iceberg, fans. Archie has lots of plans for the upcoming year, which include a new CHERYL BLOSSOM mini-series, an ARCHIE'S SPRING BREAK SPECIAL, the ongoing series of STREET SHARKS and, for our Canadian neighbors, a special CANADIAN DIGEST to be released this summer. And that's not all. Stay tuned for more. In the meantime write your letters to: Victor Gorelick, Editor, ARCHIE COMIC PUBLICATIONS, INC., P.O. Box 419, Mamaroneck, New York 10543.
